

Vision

We aim at inculcating a sound human formation for the total development of the whole person, making the student a well integrated person.

Mission

Inspired by the teachings of Christ we liberate to empower the students to meet current and future challenges, to develop social awareness and to create a sense of patriotism.